LAWRENCE, DAVID
Man has changed—God hasn't; man has changed again and again, but mandates from God are still same as they have always been; moral force can be more powerful than physical force in shaping course of man's future, Jl 7 p 76
Tax "reform" can harm econ; modifications of tax laws should be given careful study so that incentives will not be impaired or public interest adversely affected; tax reform as whole should be thoroughly examined for all bad effects rate changes can have on Amer econ, Jl 14 p 88
Why so many students are unhappy; aimlessness, frustration, restlessness are making many students receptive to mob psychology; educ insts have not tackled problem of how to help individual get ready for type of career in which he would most likely succeed, Jl 21 p 84
Worst sickness in Amer history; Pres Nixon, in message to Cong, has pointed to basic source of much of crime, unrest, riots in cities, disturbances in colleges, schools; adults as well as young people should be given facts on dangers of narcotics, Jl 28 p 84
Govt censorship or freedom of press? FCC threatens to ban broadcasting of all cigarette advertisements; const question is whether governmental agency, even Cong, may interfere with right to extol any product lawful to mfr, sell, Ag 4 p 84
"Let us pray"; welcoming three astronauts returning from moon, Pres asked Chaplain of U S S Hornet to offer prayer; certainly educators of country should be able to meet objections raised by Supreme Ct, permit schoolchildren to pray to God, Ag 11 p 88
Good side of youth's dissent; it would be erroneous to say dissent by youth in Amer today is all bad; youth, by speaking out, has helped to stimulate some worthwhile debate; criticism, whether by young or old, is desirable, Ag 18 p 84
Punishing the successful; from editorial in "The Wall Street Journal"; under new tax plan, deferred pay received by emp in his retirement yrs is taxed not on his income level at time but at rate if he had received money yrs earlier; this has no other purpose than to punish successful, Ag 25 p 84
Strange indifference; there is strange indifference, if not gen complacency, in mood of peoples almost everywhere while threats of war emerge from two largest Communist countries; never in history of U S has worldwide crusade for peace been more imperative, S 1 p 80
What's become of "voluntary censorship"? during two world wars system of "voluntary censorship" was established by press; recent publication of item telling of refusal of some Amer soldiers to obey orders shows need at all times for "voluntary censorship," S 8 p 92
"Love thy neighbor"; day-by-day tension between races is increasing; outbursts of violence are commonplace; this is human dilemma, not just matter of law; persuasion, patience, fidelity to cause of better understanding are essential, S 15 p 88
